Russian Note Delivered to Kennedy

Disarm Turkey In Exchange For Cuba, Mr. K. Proposes

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House reported today that President Kennedy has received another message from Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, but declined comment on it for the present.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger said Kennedy received a letter from Khrushchev late Friday night.

"We will have no present comment on it," Salinger said.

The White House presumably wanted to compare the message received by Kennedy with the text of it as reported by the Soviet news agency Tass before making any comment.

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev told President Kennedy in a message today he would withdraw offensive weapons from Cuba if the United States withdraws its rockets from Turkey.

The offer was made in a message sent to President Kennedy and to U Thant, acting secretary general of the United Nations.

The message to Kennedy was broadcast by Moscow radio.

The Soviet premier made the offer to withdraw weapons from Cuba which the President considers offensive and would declare this pledge to the United Nations. He said it was unfair to expect the Soviet Union to withdraw weapons from Cuba when rockets on American bases in Turkey are pointed at the Soviet Union.

The Soviet premier said he is glad the President is agreeable to negotiating the present dispute, and said he thinks it perhaps wise if Thant would act as agent.

He said he is glad the President has agreed to normalize the situation through talks and to avoid a confrontation of Soviet and American ships at sea in the blockade area.

Khrushchev said the Soviet Union is prepared to make a declaration pledging noninterference in the internal affairs of Turkey if the United States will make a similar commitment on Cuba.

He suggested the declarations be made in the United Nations.

The Soviet leader said he believes it will not be difficult to get Cuba and Turkey to agree to permit United Nations inspection teams on their territories to police the dismantling of rocket bases.

He said Soviet representatives would be sent to the United Nations with full instructions on concluding such an agreement. These negotiations, he added, should be concluded within two to three weeks—"certainly no more than a month."

Khrushchev assured the President that all weapons now stationed in Cuba are under the direct control of Soviet military personnel and that there is no danger of their being used against the United States.

The Soviet leader said agreement on the Cuba controversy would open the way for finding solutions to other East-West disputes. He mentioned the problem of a nuclear test ban but said nothing about Berlin.

The letter spoke only about negotiations between representatives of the Soviet Union and the United States. Khrushchev made no mention of a meeting between himself and Kennedy.

Tension focusing on the blockade abated Friday night. U Thant, acting secretary-general of the United Nations, disclosed that Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev had agreed to avoid at least for a while a showdown between the U.S. Navy and Cuba-bound Russian ships.

The agreement was reached in an exchange of messages.

However, Khrushchev's message did not deal with the base problem. He simply announced he had ordered Soviet vessels temporarily to stay away from the inter-

India Ready To Negotiate On Border

MOSCOW (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru of India told Premier Khrushchev today he would agree to negotiate a border settlement with the Chinese but only on condition that the Communists withdraw behind the breakthrough line of Sept. 8.

The Indian Embassy said the message was sent uncoded and apparently had been addressed also to other governments.

The message, the embassy indicated, accused the Red Chinese of aggression against India. It said the aggression began on a large scale Sept. 8 after a dispute lasting four or five years.

In his telegram, Nehru said he was prepared for "honorable negotiations" but insisted that the Red Chinese withdraw, not from the present line, as they have proposed, but back of the older line from which their present attack had been launched.

The message was described as about three pages long.

The message was described by an embassy spokesman as a general outline of the Indian position regarding the frontier dispute, which in recent days has developed into heavy fighting involving thousands of troops on both sides.

City Buys Land, Gains Endless Water Supply

But Diplomats Not Optimistic

Respite In Cuban Crisis Is Welcomed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Diplomats today welcomed the brief respite in the Cuban crisis provided by the Soviet pledge to keep Russian ships out of blockade waters for a time. But there was scant optimism as feverish talks sped on behind the U.N. scenes.

The diplomats were gravely concerned by the U.N. announcement that the Russians are continuing rapid development of their Cuban missile sites and the warning that the United States might take further action.

In a new exchange of messages with Acting Secretary-General U Thant, Premier Khrushchev agreed to keep all Russian vessels out of the interception area set up under the U.S. arms quarantine. And President Kennedy said U.S. warships would do their best to avoid a confrontation.

Both Kennedy and Khrushchev insisted, however, that a freeze must be limited to a short interval while Thant pushes his efforts at a peaceful settlement. Thant released the contents of the new exchange Friday after spending the day conferring separately with delegation chiefs of the United States, the Soviet Union and Cuba.

All remained silent on progress after a day-long round of private talks with Thant. They prepared for more today.

Diplomats have lost much of the optimism that swept the United Nations when word was first passed that the United States and the Soviet Union had agreed to confer with Thant on the possibility of negotiating the crisis that has raised worldwide fears of nuclear war.

Tension rose again with the White House announcement of the continuing Soviet missile buildup in Cuba.

Delegates recalled that Kennedy said in his report to the nation Monday that the United States was prepared to take action beyond the blockade if the missile installations in Cuba were not dismantled.

In his new note to Thant, Kennedy said: "I share your hope that Chairman Khrushchev will also heed your appeal and that we can then proceed urgently to meet the requirements that these offensive military systems in Cuba be withdrawn, in order to end their threat to peace. I must

Auditor's Office Probe To Start

Action Begins After Urging By DiSalle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Emergency Board has released $15,000 for an investigation by a nationally known accounting firm into charges by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle of fraud in operations of the state auditor's office.

The auditor, James A. Rhodes, DiSalle's opponent for governor, made the request for funds for the probe. Rhodes, who called the allegation "a complete and total falsehood," said the firm of Ernst & Ernst would start investigation early next week.

He said the accountants could complete their work "in a couple of days" and promised that their report would be made public immediately.

DiSalle, however, expressed dissatisfaction with the board's action and said he would take steps to obtain what he called an independent investigation.

Before unanimously approving Rhodes' request, the board turned

GOP Leaders Level Charges

'Politicking' Hinted In JFK's Cuba Stand

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican campaign leaders have suggested President Kennedy was more concerned with votes on Nov. 6 than with Soviet missiles when he announced a blockade on arms shipments to Cuba.

The Republican Congressional Campaign Committee said in a newsletter Friday that "the New Frontier's kid gloves policy toward Cuba for the past 21 months just did not jibe with the President's tough words about Cuba."

The statement added that Kennedy's speech, citing the presence of Soviet offensive missiles as the reason for the arms blockade, "sounded brazenly false inasmuch as this had been known for months."

The committee advanced several reasons for questioning whether the President really intended to "crack down hard" on Communist Cuba.

Among them, it said, was the fact that 72 hours after Kennedy announced the blockade Monday night, no Soviet ships had been halted by Navy ships patrolling the approaches to Cuba.

Russians Mob U.S. Embassy

Demonstrate Over U.S. Move on Cuba

MOSCOW (AP)—A big demonstration was staged today in front of the U.S. embassy protesting the Cuban blockade, and a band of youngsters plastered the front of the building with red, green and purple ink.

A number of windows were broken by ink bottles hurled by the younger participants in the demonstration.

Around 300 police swarmed around the embassy and trucks carrying about a hundred soldiers were parked on a side street not far from the building, apparently to reinforce the police if necessary.

The demonstration began just after noon with a band of about 700 factory and office workers assembled in front of the embassy carrying 50 well prepared signs. The signs said "Hands off Cuba" and "Cuba da, Yankee nyet."

The demonstration was clearly one approved by the authorities. A television troupe arrived on the scene along with the marchers.

Police said more demonstrators were gathered on a nearby square. Other police began putting up green barriers across the street on both sides of the embassy in order to form a square for the demonstrators.

At first about 50 police accompanied the demonstrators, but the number swelled first to 200, then was reinforced with an added 100.

The police had walkie-talkies with which they instructed the demonstrators to stay off the sidewalks.

The embassy barricaded windows on the lower three floors of the 10-story building so the rocks and ink did not damage inside. From the second to the seventh floor most of the space is taken up by private apartments of embassy personnel.

The main body of demonstrators made no effort to storm the building as did younger members. At one point a group of school-age youngsters broke through the police barricade without much

Tract Is Along Beaver Creek South of Salem

79-Acre Region Contains Many Park Features

By VIRGINIA HURRAY

Salem's future water supply was made "virtually limitless" with the signing of a deed transferring approximately 80 acres of land along Little Beaver Creek, south of Salem, Friday afternoon.

The land deeded to the city of Salem from Mrs. Frances Eagleton of 610 E. Third St. is a portion of the territory formerly known as Shelton's Grove and Eagleton's Glen and is located off Route 45 on Teegarden Road, approximately five miles south of the Salem city limits.

Area Has Park Possibilities
Acquisition of the land by Salem also enables the city to possess a park featuring a running stream, nature trails, wildlife preserve, and camping facilities in the vicinity of the site of the Teegarden bridge, well-known landmark.

Utilities superintendent Aubrey Hayes who announced the land acquisition today, declared that ownership of the tract by the city is "a wonderful asset for the future water supply of the city of Salem."

He had words of praise for the Eagleton family who agreed to sell the 79.25 acre portion of their land to the city for $4,500. Action by Salem City Council last April 9 made funds available for the land purchase.

Was Once Picnic Spot

The long strip of ground had been acquired by the Eagleton family in six sections from 1919 to 1949, and for many years the glen was a favorite picnic spot of area residents. Land adjoining the city's newly-acquired acreage will continue to be owned by Mrs. Eagleton.

Hayes, triumphant that final agreement was reached between the utilities commission and the Eagleton family for the transfer of the land, explained to a Salem News reporter:

"Right now there is an eight-and-a-quarter square mile drainage area for all the water that is pumped into Salem City Lake (reservoir). The additional source from the middle fork of Little Beaver stream means that there will be a drainage area of an additional 112 square miles. A sizeable jump indeed, from eight-and-a-quarter to 120 1/4 square miles!"

Heavy Water Flow

He added that during a dry season, it is estimated that the flow of water down Little Beaver is approximately from 25,000,000 to 30,000,000 gallons per day.

Excavation Work For Church Begins

Excavation was begun this week for the First Friends Church's new building on Jennings Ave.

Bricker & Bricker, the general contractors, expect to have the construction completed within nine months.

Site of the new edifice is a six-acre tract of ground at 1028 Jennings which the church board of trustees purchased several years ago. The decision to proceed with construction was made following the recent sale of the present church property at 200 E. Pershing St. to George Emery for a business investment. Sale price was $65,000.

The new church will have a sanctuary to accommodate 600 worshippers, plus Sunday School rooms and a fellowship hall. Rev. H. B. Winn is the pastor.

Seven more Ohio milk stores were closed last Sunday

How long before the wave of closings hits your community?

The "Let's Keep Sunday Sunday" group professes to be against Issue #1, on your November ballot, because they say it would open up the large food stores on Sunday. Actually what these merchants are really trying to do is close down the little neighborhood food stores and dairy stores. And they're succeeding.

They can't open their own stores on Sundays because they're too big and have too much overhead cost to make a profit on the small volume of Sunday food buying. So they've dragged out Ohio's 131-year-old Sunday closing law and are insisting on its rigid enforcement to eliminate what little competition they have left.

Do you think it's fair that a 131-year-old law should be used to halt milk sales on Sundays when low-powered beer is perfectly legal? You can now buy beer by the bottle, can, quart, gallon, or case—but in some cities you can't get a drop of milk for your children or fresh bread if you run out.

Maybe the wave of closings hasn't reached your community yet, but you can expect it soon.

Stopping it is simple. Vote YES for Issue #1.

Nikita Will Be In Form

If Premier Khrushchev makes another appearance in this country will we act as if he were a traveling circus, or take him in our stride?

So far we haven't grown up enough to handle the man intelligently. What with television, cameras, radios and reporters giving him the impression he is supposed to put on a holy show, he can't be blamed for doing it.

That is not to imply he should be snubbed—only to wonder why he can't be handled with the same dignity and taste expected when the No. 1 government figure of other countries shows up in New York City.

What is the peculiar fascination of the Khrushchevs and the Castros that causes the news media to go into nip-ups and spasms whenever these showmen appear in the United States?

WHEN OUR own political leaders to abroad there are staged demonstrations to soften them up for the next foreign aid bite. The streets are filled with cheering natives by command of the government.

But let a Khrushchev show up in New York City and the problem is to keep crowds from trampling the barricades. Or let a Castro show up, complete with beard and a crate of chickens for him and his associate chicken-pluckers to tear apart, and he's the greatest attraction since the Human Fly climbed the front of the bank building back in Foxtown.

Cuba's the Least Part of It

We have a bad habit in the United States of using telescopic vision. We get one object into focus and forget everything else.

The object now is Cuba, which has been coming into focus ever since Fidel Castro made it known he was working with Moscow to capture his country for communism.

The focus snapped into place with President Kennedy's announcement that Russian military aggression was being readied in Cuba for potential use against the United States; that the United States, therefore, would defend itself with a naval and air blockade of Cuba.

But Cuba is the least part of the complex of mischief with which international communism has surrounded the United States. This is not the time for tunnel vision on the part of the American people.

Their collective instinct about protection finally has been incorporated in government action to block a Russian arms buildup in Cuba. The next move will be to get rid of the arms already massed in the island.

BUT CUBA is only one pinpoint in Communist harassment of the United States, its allies and their uncommitted dependents. If overt aggression occurs, it isn't likely to occur in Cuba. The Soviet Union will not be likely to commit itself so far from home in behalf of a puppet country whose

Timely Reminder

"Ordinary precautions and common sense will avert almost all accidental fires and asphyxiations in homes during the winter." Fire Chief Elmer Bush said the other day.

With the sudden arrival of cold weather, his timely message ought to inspire all of us to have our furnaces, water heaters, incinerators and room heaters checked for proper ventilation and other safety features. "Safety begins in the home," is the old maxim.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I resent the insinuation I was with Teddy Roosevelt on the charge up San Juan Hill when we tangled with Cuba the last time. I tried to enlist but they didn't have suitable duty for a brigadier general who had gone through the chute at Bull Run.

Sure-thing bettors should get their money down early on James R. Hafia, who again is in the toils of the law. If you had put down $10,000 on this man at suitable odds to walk out of courtrooms under his own steam, you could be almost as well-fixed as he is.

Every so often throughout history, the nations of the world shift the balance of power, like a coal pile tumbling down when too much has been removed from one spot. I think this is about to happen again and am prepared to write off old allies and write on new ones.

I have heard of a local patriot who moved a case of booze into his bomb shelter the night of President Kennedy's speech and far be it from me to be the first to cast a stone with all that glass in range.

What I don't know about the stock market is everything, but I can remember this much: Stock prices never stay down when military activity is stepped up because this is the strongest stimulus known to Wall Street.

The aftermath of that grisly story about the airline stewardess blown out of a plane when the door opened by accident was about people on the ground that night who heard an eerie scream they estimated lasted for upward of a minute and didn't know what it was until the body of the victim was found in their neighborhood the next morning.

I never have found any reason to believe political campaigns change votes and am

We don't blame them; we blame ourselves.

Communists fascinate us. We look on them as little children look on "wild men" in carnivals. They are the half-men-half-women of political show business, and they make the most of their chance to strut in the spotlight.

A LARGE PART of communism is in the imagination of the wide-eyed throngs Communists appeal to. The things they talk about are all unproved theory; communism never has worked anywhere. Their stock in trade is an image of strong-armed leadership—giants with a sense of historic purpose pitted against aimless weaklings blown hither and yon by whim and caprice—the men against the boys.

Everybody knows this. Everybody talks about it. Everybody deplores it. But does anyone want to bet if Khrushchev visits the United Nations this fall here won't be the greatest extravaganza since Barnum turned Tom Thumb into the hottest property in show business?

And it won't be his fault. It will be the fault of the United States. It will be the fault of all of us who go to pieces at the idea of having a real, live man-eating, double-jointed, shoe-pounding Communist in our midst.

Until we learn to take such people in our stride, we can't complain when they take manifest delight in throwing us into confusion.

people would be no help to it and whose leader is likelier to get a liability than an asset.

Berlin is the probably place for a military showdown, if the Soviet Union really wants one.

A compromise on missile bases is the likeliest way to avoid a military showdown, if that is what the Soviet Union wants. A compromise?

It would give up its Cuban bases if the United States will give up its Turkish bases. Or, perhaps a little later, Russia would abandon preparations for bases in Siberia if the United States abandoned its bases in Britain.

This is the quid-pro-quo logic of Russian militarism—something better than an even trade—all of what Russia wants for part of what the other fellow wants.

RUSSIA DOES NOT want Cuba and its disordered economy, nor Castro, nor a war thousands of miles from home. But Russia does want surcease from close military surveillance.

It is still could be assumed that it and Red China want the same things, which has been increasingly doubtful, Quemoy, Matsu and Formosa are more important than Cuba. That clash between India and Red China is more important than Cuba.

It will be a rude awakening to reality if the U.S. government and its citizens become so obsessed with Cuba that no one keeps eye on the places where trouble could erupt next.

There Are No Winners

A Salem man made this candid observation Friday:

The "game" of Russian roulette seems tame by comparison when you study the possible outcome of the new, yet untried international nuclear game of "push-button poker."

In Russian roulette the "pull" of a trigger frequently claims one player. In "push-button poker" everyone loses.

beginning to doubt the claim that they bring out votes. My own reaction is in the other direction; I turn against both candidates in hard-fought campaigns because both become offensive in their desperation.

I love the dear good auto industry. I love its juggernauts that will go 125 miles an hour. I love what the auto industry does for the national economy. But I do not love it when it says to me that people want what the industry wants to sell. Some of the people, dear industry—only some of the people. The rest of us want something we can afford.

I can remember many enjoyable Halloween parties, including one where I learned a game called "Postoffice." But the most fun I ever had was turning over all the white-washed stones in a pyramid in the backyard garden of a cantankerous spinster on Main St. You know, doctor—so she would look out the next morning and the pyramid wouldn't be whitewashed. Honest, doc, that's how it happened.

If I were a politician when chaos set in I would refuse to make any comment on the grounds that anything I might say could be used to incriminate me as a fool, a liar, a hypocrite, a whiffenpoof, a linthead or worse.

It has been years since I've laughed harder than I did at the delightful spoof in Ladies Home Journal about how to tell the difference between Democrats and Republicans. I expect to carry it in my wallet if the lady I read Ladies Home Journal with will take it out of her pocketbook.

It happened in a restaurant. The fruit salad was under par. Someone criticized it. The answer: "There's a war almost on, ya know."

Nuclear Stalemate May Deter World War III

A war scare isn't always easy to deflate, but it isn't necessary to succumb to fears when indubitable facts point the other way.

If there is one thing that is plain about the world situation today in contrast to any other period in history, it is that a nuclear stalemate exists now which restraints the two major powers from destroying one another.

The two world wars of this century came about because there was no balance of power such as prevails today. One side—the Kaiser in 1914 and Hitler in 1939—was really in each instance stronger militarily than the other side. Also, the assumption in Berlin on both occasions was that the United States either wouldn't enter the war at all, or that its help would come too late to affect the result.

Today there is a balance of terror, and what has happened in respect to Cuba doesn't alter the over-all situation in any way. Nikita Khrushchev isn't going to risk the lives of millions in the Soviet Union in order to help Castro save face. The people of the Soviet Union still remember their battle casualties in the second World War—amounting to at least 7½ million. The surviving relatives are numerous.

If there's any one thing certain, it is that the Soviet people will not wish Mr. Khrushchev to start a war, and he will not throw any bombs unless they are thrown at his people.

It is equally certain that the United States will not start a war or throw any bombs at the Soviet people unless this country has been attacked or there is a certainty that it will be.

FOR ALL practical purposes, the stalemate will continue for a long, long time. What confuses many people, and understandably, too, is the fact that bluffing in international policy has not become outmoded.

The dangers of miscalculation are always theoretically present.

Reuther Stepping Down

By VICTOR RIESEL

Volatile and voluble Walter Reuther soon will hit the skyways. The "Redhead" and his brother Victor will fly to Japan in mid-November. They will leave after what is expected to be a turbulent session of labor's high Nov. 12 here.

But Walter Reuther may enplane as an ex-member of this high command. Some weeks ago he asked his own colleagues in the leadership of the auto union to approve his plan to resign from the AFL-CIO high council if he is stymied again in his conflict with AFL-CIO president George Meany. They approved, of course.

Behind his duel between two of the world's most influential men are some basic differences which could have multi-megaton impact on global affairs—and which frequently affect the White House.

One still untold story, starting in West Berlin last July, sharply silhouettes the basic policy disagreements between these influential labor leaders—influential indeed in the very highest echelons of our government.

IN WEST BERLIN, Reuther conferred privately with many leaders of tens of millions of union members. They had come from all continents for the world conference of the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions.

Reuther then told some of his American colleagues he was leaving before the parley's end because of the missile plan negotiations in the United States.

He returned home by way of Italy. While there he talked privately with leaders of the Christian and Socialist parties. The latter is led by one Pietro Nenni who is now part of the Italian government under Premier Fanfani.

IN RECENT MONTHS, the CGIL unions have been violent. They've hit the bricks with wild strikes, and have hurled bricks at their opponents. They have been pressuring the government—among other things—with demands for the disarming of police. They also want more power in the government.

In turn, the pro-West Fanfani regime has been urging Nenni to break with the Communists. About this he is not at all enthusiastic.

All this is vital to the free world.

If the left-wing Socialist-Communist combination can swing Italy into the neutralist camp, there will be an awfully big hole at the bottom of Europe through which much of NATO defense will crash.

Furthermore, across the world the most powerful Japanese unionists, led by the militant socialist, Akira Iwai, are politically enamored of Pietro Nenni. As he goes in Italy, so will they go in Japan. And it is vital to the United States that the Socialist-Communist coalition break up in Japan.

WE NEED to have millions of workers friendly to the United States at this grim moment on both those bastions on two continents.

Shortly after Reuther returned to the United States from Italy he contacted men who are among the nation's top executive and military leaders. The auto union chief, who is also a vice president of the AFL-CIO, asked for a secret meeting of national security people. The meeting was arranged.

In the group was Gen. Maxwell Taylor. Reuther outlined to them his own plan for an attempt to take the Italian labor movement from Communist control. What he urged was American support for a move by the weaker Socialist and Christian unions into the CGIL, controlled by the Communists.

This would mean attempting to take over the five-million-member Italian labor movement from the inside after first merging with it. This in turn would mean that the non-Communist unions would have to give up their own national organizations.

Those at the hush-hush meeting in Washington listened carefully. One of the first to object to the strategy was Maxwell Taylor, now head of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The gathering finally rejected Reuther's strategy.

ONE OF THOSE not at the secret conference was the then labor secretary, Arthur Goldberg. He refused to attend because George Meany, the leader of American Labor, had neither been consulted nor invited.

Meany, one of the world's hardest-hitting anti Communists, of course, would have battled the policy of fighting the Communists from within. The AFL-CIO president is for crushing them with the basis of the feuding between anti-Communist unions from the outside.

That remains the official policy inside labor and inside the White House.

It is such matters of global strategy and labor's influencing of White House policy which are the basis of the feuding between the two leaders of labor. Little else, regardless of what you hear.

It's often asked: "But supposing somebody pulls the trigger by take?"

The answer is that it takes more than one man to make a decision of such importance either in Moscow or in Washington, and the people who surround any commander-in-chief nowadays know the consequences to them and their families if a mistake is not prevented.

Bluffing is, of course, a risky business. But the man who is doing the bluffing—Premier Khrushchev in this case—knows the limits of such tactics. Once the other side shows resoluteness, the bluffing tends to become less significant.

Thus, it may well be that President Kennedy's vacillation on the Cuban issue in recent months wrongly gave the Soviets an impression of irresoluteness in the White House.

Whatever inferences were drawn from this unfortunate period, the President has exhibited a positiveness and a firmness beginning with his speech last Monday night that now hardly can be misconstrued anywhere.

The waiting period in itself could be regarded as constructive, except for one thing—the missile bases in Cuba already functioning which a reckless Castro could use. That's the real danger to this country and it ought to be removed. There are two ways to do it—one is by using our bombers to wipe out the missile bases, and the other is by pressure on Cuba through Moscow, which could be brought about by the influence of the United Nations.

History Today

Today is Saturday, Oct. 27th, the 300th day of 1962. There are 65 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this day in 1945, the Hudson River was the scene of the greatest Navy Day celebration in history. President Truman reviewed 47 warships while a fleet of 1,200 planes droned overhead.

On this date: In 1806, Napoleonic armies occupied Berlin.

In 1864, after causing great damage to Union shipping, the Confederate ram Albatross was blown up.

In 1904, the first electric subway in the United States was opened in New York.

In 1942, the British 8th Army stopped the Nazi counterattack at El Alamein during World War II.

In 1944, Admiral Chester Nimitz declared that the Japanese fleet had been so heavily damaged in the Philippines sea battle that it would be unable to again challenge American naval units.

Today's birthdays: Actor Jack Carson is 52. Baseball broadcaster and former National League star Ralph Kiner is 40.

Thought for today: He who decides a case without hearing the other side, though he decide justly, cannot be considered just—Seneca.

Dr. Flesch Out of Step

By JOSEPH MICHALAK

American Johnnys can, too, read, Dr. Flesch! In fact, fourth- and sixth-graders in Philadelphia read better than their counterparts in Wiesbaden, Germany.

This was the major finding of a research work reported in School and Society, the publication of the Society for the Advancement of Education. It was conducted by Dr. Ralph C. Prestn, a professor of education at the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Preston said critics like Dr. Rudolf Flesch and Vice Admiral Hyman Rickover "believe that, if the methods of teaching reading . . . (were) modeled after the European methods, reading problems practically would disappear from American schools."

Yet his 1959 testing of 1,338 Philadelphians and 1,053 Wiesbadeners showed that:

1. The American children read faster in all four subgroups (fourth-grade boys, fourth-grade girls, sixth-grade boys and sixth grade girls).

2. Except for sixth grade boys, the reading comprehension of the Americans was "significantly higher."

3. German children showed a higher incidence of "retarded" and "severely retarded" on five of six comparisons yielding "significant" differences.

The findings were based on figures from one German and one American standardized test administered to each child.

Dr. Preston said that the data did not support Dr. Flesch on another count—that sex differences in reading are unique to the United States.

In both grades and on all tests, the scores of American girls exceeded those of American boys. In the German sample, the reverse was the case, except in reading speed in Grade 4.

10 YEARS AGO — Mike Oana will be installed as commander of the Amvets tonight by Fred B. Henthorne of Youngstown at the local Amvet Post, Saul Metz, Alton Fields and Jack Rance have been named first, second and third vice commanders, respectively.

25 YEARS AGO — Miss Mary Ruth Allen entertained 12 members of the Musical Arts Club at her home on Jennings Ave., Tuesday evening. Mrs. Loren Early reviewed the opera, "Tristan and Isolde."

35 YEARS AGO — Beginning early in the morning Friday, Baptist Church members will read the Bible through. The service begins at 8 a.m. when the pastor, Rev. A. M. Clarke reads the opening chapters of Matthew's gospel. Readers will follow, continuing until 7:30 p.m. at which time it is expected the New Testament will have been read. The Old Testament will be read at various homes.

The important point is that the bases have to be dismantled. They cannot be left as a means by which Castro or anybody else can attempt to blackmail the United States.

THE TURNING BACK of certain Communist-bloc ships now on the ocean—doubtless by orders from Moscow—is a healthy sign. It proves that the Soviets aren't interested in "escalating" the situation still further and would prefer to wait and see what happens in Cuba itself.

Castro can be sacrificed at any time by Khrushchev, and, even if the missile bases were destroyed by force, the Soviet Union would logically do no more than issue propaganda protests.

A world war to save Castro wouldn't be justified in the eyes of the Soviet people.

There always is the risk that the American policy may be weakened in appearance by a let-down in any of the measures of defense already taken. The deployment of ships and Marines around Cuba and the maintenance of the quarantine or blockade are all necessary, at least until the missile bases are dismantled either voluntarily by Castro or otherwise.

The present outlook is for firmness in America's policy, and that's the surest way to prevent a world war. Had such firmness been displayed by the western European governments in the 1930's, as mentioned often in these dispatches and as stressed last Monday night by President Kennedy in his television speech, there might never have been any World War II.

He's Had Enough

On your editorial page Oct. 24 Rep. Wayne Hays was quoted as saying, "I'm ready to hit the beach."

I think the people of this district should be willing to make the sacrifice, and grant him a few months leave of absence "to hit the beach" when the time comes.

I must confess that as a veteran of World War II who has had the opportunity of hitting the beach four times, I have none of the courage, eagerness, and bravado shown by Rep. Hays.

Incidentally, to really get the "feel" of an amphibious operation, the first wave is highly recommended.

He Was Embarrassed

I was embarrassed for Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall when he and Don Gosney of the board of elections dropped in at an East Liverpool building where a wrestling match was to take place last Saturday night.

The crowd booed and jeered when Mr. Udall was introduced but then yelled and applauded when the wrestler and a wrestling bear came into the ring.

I just hope Mr. Udall didn't get the wrong impression of the people of Ohio.

Sing Along With Uncle Sam

In these days of "sing along," I wonder what has happened to "sing along with Sam (Uncle Sam, that is.)"

How long has it been since you have heard a group break into loud, proud voices with the first strains of our National Anthem?

Next time, be you tenor, bass, fog-horn or just plain squeaky, sing out! They are playing Our song.

A Word About UNICEF

With reference to recent letters about UNICEF, we open our hearts and pocketbooks to help the less-fortunate, and this is Christian love as Jesus Christ taught.

We should rejoice at being able to help others, but I have learned from "National Review" (Dec. 2, 1961) that money collected for UNICEF at that Halloween time to feed hungry children around the world was used, instead, to buy guns to shoot Katangans.

THAT'S A WONDERFUL

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Yes, that's a wonderful story. Maybe he'll be president some day, or like the man in the storybook. Maybe his picture will one day be shown in an historic sketch—a flashback of the life of someone famous.

It could be you. It could be your own child, or someone you know. The young have dreams, the old have visions. But, from young dreams come realities.

The greatest reality is God. He is waiting . . . for you. He waits in your church. Relive the dreams of long ago this Sunday . . . in church we call those dreams, prayers! For prayer is often but a wish, and frequently, a silent "thank you" sighed to God. You can face stern realities with stronger faith, if you have that faith renewed—often.

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise: I am an Oriental antique dealer. Nearly everything in my shop is lacquer. I am willing to share the Chinese secret of cleaning and preserving lacquer.

Take three-fourth cup of water, put it in a pan, and bring it to a rolling boil. Put two tea bags in this. Put a tight lid on the pan and let the tea steep. Shake the pan around until the tea bag is well soaked. Leave the lid on the pan until the tea is cold.

Now . . . remove all of the waxes and oils from all of the lacquered pieces. Dry it thoroughly. Take a terry cloth rag and dip into this cold tea. Apply this briskly on all of the lacquered pieces.

Now, here's the secret Do not wipe this off! The tea contains tannic acid. The tannic acid will return the lacquer to its original gloss!

Lacquer needs no waxes, oils, etc. In fact, it is an oriental opinion of one who deals in these lovely finished — whether new or old — that oils and waxes should never be applied to them.

W. S. WOO

All of the accumulated oils and waxes MUST be removed before this method brings results, so don't forget that! If your lacquer is an old antique . . . then it may have hundreds of coats of wax and polish on it. . .

Waxes and oils vary in their content. How you get them off is important. Ask your hardware store, department store or someone who knows and sells waxes and polishes. But don't use the tea method unless all waxes are removed.

The agriculture committee was in charge of the program and Albert Antram, chairman, presented Dr. E. Mayberry of East Liverpool, who showed colored slides of a recent trip he took to Alaska, stressing the agriculture of that state.

The club awarded their annual agriculture award for 1962 to Arthur VanPelt of Salem - Unity Road.

Announcement was made of the district meeting Nov. 3 at Marlington High School, west of Alliance, when Robert Smith of Tennessee, past president of Ruritan National, will be the guest speaker.

The next regular meeting of the club will be at 7 p.m. Nov. 15 at which time "Ladies Night" will be observed.

Jackson Farm Burns; Loss To Run High

Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed a large barn, cattle, farm equipment, hay, straw and feed at the Ralph Jackson farm, three and one half miles northeast of Lisbon on Route 517 in Elkrun Township Friday at 1:45 p.m.

Lisbon volunteer firemen were summoned but were unable to save anything.

Jackson said that three 400-pound steer, five sows and 42 pigs perished in the fire which swept through the frame structure.

Also destroyed was all farm equipment which included a combine, baler, plows and miscellaneous tools, in addition to 200 bushels of wheat and oats, 100 bushels of barley, 3,000 bales of hay and 1,000 bales of straw.

Mr. Jackson, who works at the National Rubber Machine Co. in Columbiana, purchased the former Howard Pike farm when he got out of the service. He said his two older sons, 19 and 17 said they saw smoke coming out of straw shed and moved one bale of straw and everything seemed to explode. Mrs. Jackson was at the grocery store at the time.

Jackson said this morning that he has not started to estimate his loss. He said it is only partially covered by insurance.

It was the third barn farm in the Columbiana-Mahoning county district in the last two weeks.

Traffic Injuries Fatal to Passenger

David Habeger, 33, of Youngstown, one of three persons injured in a two-car collision on Route 18 near North Jackson Friday morning, died in Youngstown South Side Hospital at 6:30 a.m. today.

Death was due to head injuries, the hospital reported.

Still listed in serious condition is Albert Boldt, 56, of RD 1, North Lima, who was the driver of the car which struck the automobile in which Habeger was a passenger.

The third victim, John D. McComb, 52, of Girard, who was the driver of the other automobile, is in fair condition.

driving at least for control of the entire 51,000 square miles of the Himalayan borderlands that they have been disputing with India for five years.

Before the offensive began a week ago, the Chinese already controlled 12,000 square miles in Ladakh at the northwest end of the border. They appear now to have captured most of the remaining area they had claimed there and that front has become relatively quiet.

The Chinese drove ahead also in the northeast, where they claim 32,500 square miles. Unofficial estimates are that they captured 500 square miles in the northeast during the past week, mostly around the important monastery town of Towang, captured Wednesday.

Two battalions of Indian troops were rushed up in an attempt to stem a Chinese force knifing southward on a jeep track leading from Towang to the plains of Assam. It was this thrust that had high officials worried that the Chinese might expand the border war into a deep invasion of India. Nehru told Delhi University students that Red Chinese forces in captive Tibet alone "perhaps are larger than the whole Indian army," which is said to be between 500,000 and 600,000 strong. Nehru has said the Chinese threw 30,000 of their troops into the fighting on the northeast front from Tibet.

Reports reaching the military crossroads and airfield town of Tezpur in Assam said the Chinese were bringing heavy artillery over the high mountain passes from Tibet into newly conquered areas. The Chinese were said to be building crude roads to facilitate the movement of heavy equipment.

Nehru said India is at war with Red China in every sense of the term although it is not a declared war.

ception zone established by the U.S. Navy blockade force.

Kennedy, in telling Thant he would do everything possible to avoid a direct U.S.-Soviet confrontation on the blockade front, took occasion also to emphasize the missile base issue.

"I must point out to you," he told Thant, "that present work on these systems is still continuing."

Early Friday, the 7,268-ton freighter Maruca, flying the Lebanese flag under charter to the Soviet government, was halted and boarded by a U.S. Navy party and then allowed to proceed to Cuba when its cargo was found to include "no prohibited material."

Thus the first move to board a Communist supply ship in the Caribbean quarantine zone went off peacefully. The day before a Soviet tanker was allowed to continue to Cuba without being boarded after the Navy reported it was carrying petroleum, which is not on the prohibited list.

At the State Department, an American businessman who talked to Khrushchev two days ago conferred with Undersecretary of State George McGhee.

The businessman, William E. Knox, president of Westinghouse International Electric, told newsmen later that Khrushchev was still considering coming to the United States before the end of the year, "but I do not know what he will decide."

Washington authorities said that as a result of the effort to get diplomacy in motion for a peaceful solution of the crisis some impression had been created over the world that the most immediate issue was the naval blockade.

This is a serious misunderstanding of the nature of the crisis, which, they said, was precipitated by the sudden appearance of Soviet nuclear missile power on an island only 90 miles from U.S. territory.

They said that the successful carrying out of the Soviet maneuver would put this country under an intolerable threat that it has no intention of accepting.

Some authorities said it would not actually upset the basic balance of power because the United States would retain the capacity to respond massively to any Soviet nuclear assault. But it would enormously increase the danger to the United States in conjunction with Soviet aggressive designs, they declared.

The Cuban crisis also flared up on the domestic political front Friday. The Republican Congressional Campaign Committee hinted Kennedy's blockade timing was aimed at winning votes in the Nov. 6 congressional elections.

In a newsletter, the committee questioned the real intent behind the President's move, saying: "The New Frontier's kid gloves policy toward Cuba for the past 21 months just did not jibe with the President's tough words about Cuba."

Because of the crisis Kennedy postponed until next year a Brazilian visit that had been scheduled for Nov. 12. In an exchange of letters, Brazil's President Joao Belchior Goulart told Kennedy: "The gravity of the situation does not permit us any alternative."

Civil defense aspects of the Cuban crisis brought 11 governors to Washington for a White House meeting this morning with President Kennedy.

On the Latin American front, Haiti and the Dominican Republic, which share an island just off Cuba's Coast, joined eight other hemisphere nations in offering active support to the U.S. quarantine of Cuba.

Today's report suggested the Red Chinese have hauled heavy artillery across the Himalayas and were bringing it into action against Indian forces. The Indians have fallen back repeatedly in the past week, surrendering a number of posts.

Casualties have been described as heavy, but precise numbers have not been stated.

Hays Sees Further Action Toward Cuba

Rep. Wayne L. Hays, in Salem today to attend the Rotary club's pancake and sausage benefit, said "in my opinion we will have to invade Cuba or otherwise neutralize the missile bases there."

The congressman had been called to Washington Friday morning for a Defense Department briefing on the Cuban situation.

Hays added, "this is not based on anything I was told in Washington but is based on my own deductions after the briefing and after seeing pictures of the continued construction in Cuba. The President said the quarantine of Cuba was the first step and that further action will be necessary unless these bases are dismantled."

Salem News Honor Carriers Recognized

Salem News honor carriers were honored at a dinner at the Lape Hotel Thursday evening.

They were David Gittleman, George Wire Jr., John Tarleton, Jerry Ray and David Rowland, all of whom had been recognized by the Inland Daily Press Association as "outstanding newspaper boys." These certificates were presented by News Circulation Manager Joseph Burcham.

Also attending the dinner were newsboys Bill Syppko, Tim Filp and Allen Kyser who were runners-up in the contest. Others who could not attend were Kenneth Burke and Rich Parolanti.

A talk was given by John Callahan, assistant principal at the Salem Senior High School. Brief remarks were made by George W. Rogers, business manager of The Salem News, and Ray Dean, editor.

City

"If the flow is that good in a dry season, you can see that the supply of water at other times is virtually limitless.

The distance from the middle fork of Little Beaver to Salem City Lake is 4,200 feet, the utilities head points out. "At present we are pumping about one and a half miles from Cold Run to Salem City Lake."

"We will continue to pump from Cold Run because it is a softer water there. Water from Little Beaver will be used as make-up water, to keep the Salem City Lake filled to maximum capacity at all times following the installation of a pumping station and a water line from Little Beaver to Salem City Lake."

In selling the land to Salem, Mrs. Egleton, widow of Clarence E. Egleton who died in 1952, requested that the area be used as a city park.

ed down a request from the governor's office for $5,000 "to make an investigation of records, books, documents and other papers and vouchers pertaining to the office of the auditor of the state." The board termed the request too broad.

Instead, it earmarked the $15,000 for an investigation only of the charges by DiSalle that examiners charged rent for use of state adding machines in auditing the books of local subdivisions.

Rep. Ralph Fisher, R-Wayne, House Finance Committee chairman, who along with Sen. William Deddens, R-Hamilton, voted against DiSalle's request, called for another board meeting Tuesday to give the governor a chance to amend his request so as to limit the areas of investigation.

Finance Director James H. Maloon, who represented DiSalle on the board, said the governor has the power to make an inspection of the auditor's office but wanted funds to do so.

Maloon; C. S. Goble, deputy auditor representing Rhodes, said a representative of Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy voted in favor of DiSalle's request. However, four affirmative votes were needed.

Elmer A. Keller, deputy auditor in charge of examiners, said the rentals were legal and properly accounted for.

Rhodes called accusations by DiSalle "obviously a desperate, last-minute attempt to inject a final smear into this campaign."

Keller also attacked DiSalle's statement. He said:

"I am quite sure that this office . . . can provide records to verify each and every payment made and to show false, fraudulent and defamatory the libelous statements made by Mr. DiSalle."

"In due time proper steps will be taken, both under the criminal law as well as in civil proceedings, to bring to the bar of justice those responsible."

point out to you that present work on these systems is continuing."

Thant warned in his appeal to Khrushchev that a clash of Soviet and U.S. vessels would not only aggravate the situation, but "would destroy any possibility of the discussions that I have suggested as a prelude to negotiations of a peaceful settlement."

"In the circumstances," he said, "I earnestly hope that your excellency may find it possible to instruct the Soviet ships already on their way to Cuba to stay away from the interception area for a limited time only, in order to permit discussions of the modalities of a possible agreement which could settle the problem peacefully in line with the charter of the United Nations."

Khrushchev answered: "We accept your proposal, and have ordered the masters of Soviet vessels bound for Cuba but not yet within the area of the American warships' piratical activities to stay out of the interception area, as you recommend."

But Khrushchev insisted that the arrangement must be temporary.

Thant informed Kennedy of his appeal to the Soviet premier and asked him to do all possible to avoid a "direct confrontation with Soviet ships in the next few days in order to avoid direct risk of an untoward incident."

Kennedy replied: "If the Soviet government accepts and abides by your request that Soviet ships already on their way to Cuba . . . stay away from the interception area for the limited time required for preliminary discussions, you may be assured that this government will accept and abide by your request."

"I must inform you, however that this is a matter of great urgency in view of the fact that certain Soviet ships are still proceeding toward Cuba and the interception area," Kennedy added.

In a dogged effort to keep the crisis from exploding, Thant held a double round of talks with both the United States and the Soviet Union Friday. But there was no indication whether he was meeting with any success.

UNICEF Canvass Planned by Pupils

Junior High School students will canvass Salem Monday and Tuesday evenings for contributions to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF) in lieu of asking for Halloween treats for themselves.

They will be identified by badges, and will carry containers according to Mrs. T. M. Eckstein, faculty sponsor at the Junior High.

For each dollar donated to the fund the United Nations will give two dollars, she explained. Through this fund, essential milk, medicine and health services are extended to some of the world's underprivileged children, she explained.

trouble, scrambled to the top of the grill barricade in front of the embassy. There they hung about 40 signs saying "Shame America," and "Shame aggressors."

Repeatedly, the youngsters raised their clenched fists in the air at the request of Soviet photographers.

An Associated Press automobile parked in the vicinity of the embassy was daubed with a sign saying "Viva Cuba."

As the paraders appeared, the embassy sent its Soviet employees home and as many as possible of the others out of the building.

Families living in the building were moved above the sixth floor, out of range of any except the most determined ink and rock throwers.

On a previous demonstration in 1958 the whole front of the building was splashed with ink and 175 windows were broken. Much furniture and many files were spoiled.

Shortly before the demonstration started, Ambassador Foy D. Kohler drove out of the embassy in his car with the American flag flying from the fender. He headed for the embassy residence, which lies between the embassy and the foreign office.

The major part of the crowd seemed to have little enthusiasm for the demonstration. They had simply been called out from their factories to make the showing.

About 40 minutes after the demonstration began, a number of women participating began drifting away.

Cuba when it was found that it had no offensive weapons aboard. A Russian tanker was allowed to proceed to Cuba Wednesday after the Navy reported it was carrying petroleum, which is not on the prohibited list.

"Undoubtedly," the committee said "a successful isolation of Cuba would distract attention from the innumerable foreign policy failures of his administration and from the record of inaction by the Democratic Congress. But it also would leave many Democratic office seekers in a stew of sizzling political grease."

A Democratic party spokesman, Samuel Brightman, said there would be no comment on the Republican letter.

Approximately 250 teachers were present to hear a talk by Dr. Martha Gesling Weber, professor of education and director of the reading center at Bowling Green State University.

Mrs. Claire Early of Fourth Street School, program chairman, introduced the speaker. Other members of the program committee are Mrs. Lela McKenzie, head teacher at Washingtonville School, Mrs. Sandra Borrow of United Local School, Miss Barbara Earley of Fourth Street School and Mrs. Laura Schaeffer of Columbiana.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT
Questions And Answers

Q—Recently during a long illness the alkaline content of my blood rose. Will my system correct this condition?

A—Several factors may cause the alkalinity of the blood to rise; and unless certain limits are exceeded the so-called buffer salts in the blood will maintain a healthy condition. Your doctor can usually control the condition by giving you a dilute solution of hydrochloric acid by mouth until the acid-base proportion is adjusted.

Q—My high school biology book says not to study one subject too long at a time. Is this because you use one group of nerves too long if you keep at it? If you get on the same subject the next day, does this use the same group of nerves again?

A—A change of interest often helps prevent mental fatigue. On a larger scale, a vacation with a change of scene helps to renew our spirits as well as our bodies. It would be difficult to prove that continued concentration on one subject causes fatigue of a certain group of nerves.

Q—I like soybean products but some of my neighbors say they are not good for you. What do you think?

A—Soybeans are nutritionally similar to peanuts. Raw soybeans contain a compound that depresses growth in young animals but this is completely destroyed by heat processing. All soybean flour now prepared commercially is an excellent source of protein, vitamin B and essential minerals.

Q—I am almost flat-chested and am very self-conscious about it. I am married and have four children. Isn't there some medicine that will help develop the bust?

A—In spite of all the whoop-de-do about certain movie actresses with ample busts, it is no disgrace to be flat-chested. Don't let yourself be pressured into doing something you may regret. The fact that you are married and have four children would suggest that you have made the grade as a wife and mother. Why ask for the moon?

Operations have been tried in which a synthetic spongy material is implanted between the gland and chest wall. This operation carries a risk of infection. There is also the chance that the implant may slip downward after the scar has healed.

Female sex hormones have been tried but the results are poor. A far better approach, however, is to accept yourself as you are. I'm sure your loved ones have already accepted you as you are, so why not follow along?

Washingtonville Halloween Event Is Set Tuesday

Boardman Hands Salem Third Loss Of Season 18-6

Louisville Dumps Columbiana 20-8 for League Lead

Capel Chalks Up Quakers' Only TD

By MARK MILLER
News Sports Editor

A fired up Boardman football team dominated play Friday night to hand Salem an 18-6 setback in the bitter October cold at the Spartans' stadium.

The Quakers were in trouble all evening except for a 60-yard touchdown drive late in the third period.

It was the third loss in four games for the Quakers, who are 5-3 for the season.

Boardman chalked up its third win in seven starts. The Spartans' record includes a tie.

The series between the two schools is now tied 3-3.

COACH JERRY THORPE'S

squad picked up all its yardage last night with a relentless ground attack, the Spartans making 22 first downs.

The Quakers who play county rival East Liverpool next week, looked sharp in some spots. They completely bottled up the Spartans' aerial game. Boardman tried nine passes and failed to complete one.

Tackle Tad Bonsall seemed to get in on better than half the Salem tackles. He also did a commendable job offensively.

Coach Blaine Morton's aggression stormed back for its TD, after Boardman had taken the second half kickoff and went 70 yards for a touchdown.

BOARDMAN SCORED its initial six points with 2:26 remaining in the first quarter. The Spartans traveled 58 yards in nine plays, with quarterback Mike Shasby smashing over from the three.

Salem's defense stiffened late in the second session and stopped two Boardman drives, both on the visitors 15-yard line.

The Spartans took the second half kickoff, and in 12 plays hit pay dirt, with halfback Mike Mirabella slicing off tackle for five yards and a TD.

A 19-yard pass featured in Salem's touchdown. The aerial seemed to spark Salem to its six points.

Left halfback Bill Beery carried the football six times during the drive. Right halfback Dave Capel scored on a 19-yard dash, after finding a good hole in the Boardman defensive wall.

Boardman went 59 yards in eight plays for its final touchdown in the fourth quarter. Shasby plunged the final three yards for the TD.

Redskins Risk Streak Sunday

Seeks 5th Win Against Giants

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The day of decision arrives Sunday for the Washington Redskins, the rags to apparent riches club of the National Football League.

How rich the Redskins have grown should be known after their game at New York against the resourceful Giants, champions of the Eastern Division three of the last four years.

From a team that won only one of 14 games last year—and nearly joined the permanent monuments in Yankee Stadium after a 53-0 massacre by the Giants—the Redskins have turned next to unbeatable.

Triggered by the development of youthful quarterback Norm Snead and the acquisition of ex-Cleveland flyboy Bobby Mitchell, the Redskins have started off the season with four victories and two ties. They lead the Giants (4-2) by a full game in the Eastern race.

And if they can win this first of two meetings with the New Yorkers, even the staunchest skeptics will be inclined to concede that the Redskins are capable of making it all the way to the title game against the winner in the West.

The Dallas Cowboys (3-2-1), the Cleveland Browns (3-3) and the Pittsburgh Steelers (3-3) will be watching the result with extra interest. A Redskin stumble would throw the Eastern Division into a scramble that would take the rest of the year to unravel.

The Cowboys will be host to St. Louis and Cleveland will be at Pittsburgh.

Meanwhile, unbeaten Green Bay will be after its seventh straight victory against the Colts at Baltimore while the runners-up in the Western Division, the Chicago Bears and the Detroit Lions, slug it out in Detroit. Winless Los Angeles is at San Francisco and Philadelphia is at Minneapolis-St. Paul against the Minnesota Vikings in the other games.

Snead, second year quarterback from Wake Forest, goes into Yankee Stadium with a passing record of 84 of 142 attempts for 1,334 yards and 10 touchdowns. Mitchell is as hard to handle on kickoff and punt returns as ever and has caught eight of Snead's 10 touchdown passes and 34 passes over-all.

The Giants have their old standby—Y. A. Tittle passing to Del Shofner, Frank Gifford, Joe Walton and Alex Webster; a steady, if unspectacular, ground game headed by Webster and Phil King; and that awesome defensive corps.

Junior High Team Will Play Minerva

The Salem Junior High football team, handed its worst loss of the season last week by East Liverpool Westgate, hopes to get in the win column when it entertains Minerva here Thursday.

The Quakers dropped a 48-6 decision to the Potters in Salem's 'Parents Day' event at Reilly Stadium last Thursday.

The contest was played during the heavy snow storm.

Sebring, Minerva Fight To 14-14 Tie

All the scoring was done in the first half as Minerva and Sebring battled to a 14-14 tie at Minerva Friday night.

O'Donnell scored first for the visitors on a two-yard plunge in the first quarter. Jerry Schwartzhoff caught a pass in the end zone for the extra two points.

In the second quarter, Minerva scored first on a six-yard pass from Davis to Donaldson. The try for extra point failed.

Later in the same quarter, Don Watt took a 10-yard pass to score for the Trojans. A run for extra points failed.

Sebring ended the scoring before the halftime break as Bob Davis drove two-yards through tackle. Dave Starkey ran for the conversion to give the Lions a tie.

East Palestine Posts 6-0 Win Over Poland

Don Herriott plunged over from the one-yard line midway in the second quarter to score the only touchdown of the game as East Palestine won its Homecoming game, 6-0, over visiting Poland Friday night.

The score capped an 80-yard drive by the Bulldogs. An attempted place kick was wide.

Poland threatened only twice during the contest, but lost the ball on downs both times, after moving it to the 12-yard line in the first quarter and to the 18 in the third.

East Palestine had the edge in first down, 11-10.

East Palestine's victory evened its season record at 4-4 while Poland suffered its fourth defeat against two wins and one tie.

Next week, East Palestine travels to face the unbeaten Louisville Leopards while Poland entertains the Minerva Lions at home.

Carter Fights On TV Tonight

KO Artist Faces Cuba's Fernandez

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Rubin (Hurricane) Carter, a cocky new-comer from Paterson, N. J., feels the middleweight division's top 10 needs some new blood. He is firmly convinced he can make the rankings by spilling some from Florentino Fernandez' nose tonight.

The two clash in a television (ABC TV 9 p.m., EST) 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Although he is unranked and a pro only 13 months, the mustachioed Carter is rated only a slim, 6-5 underdog to the experienced, fifth ranking, displaced Cuban.

The reasons for the narrow odds are Carter's powerful left hook and the battering Florentino's nose has absorbed in the past 10 months.

Carter, 25, has a 12-2 record, including 10 knockouts. When he connects with his left hook it usually means goodnight for his opponents.

Fernandez, noted for the power in his own left hook, has a 31-5 record, including 25 knockouts. This year he has nosed into plenty of trouble.

Dick Tiger, recently crowned WBA middleweight champion, broke Fernandez' beak in stopping the 26-year-old Cuban in six rounds in January. Joey Giambra worked on Florentino's vulnerable nose and won an eighth round TKO in March.

The Cuban apparently corrected the problem for he stopped Phil Moyer last August in seven rounds.

Gladieux, Bardash Spark Leopard Win

By GLENN SCHOTTEN

Scintillating runs by sophomore tailback Bob Gladieux welded with the crunching power of senior Bob Bardash propelled the Louisville Leopards into undisputed lead in the Tri-County League championship race as the Stark County juggernaut handed the host Columbiana Clippers their first defeat, 20-8, Friday night at Firestone Park.

The victory in the hard-fought, terrestrial battle in bitter cold before a capacity crowd boosted the loop record of Coach Hap Lillick's charges to 5-0 and enhanced the Leopards current 14th place standing in the state rankings. The Clippers, defiant but overwhelmed by sheer power, are now 4-1 in league play.

The Leopards clawed their way to the first touchdown of the game with 7:32 left in the second quarter. They hit pay dirt on a 10-yard pass from lanky quarterback Al Lawver to end Bob Hyser. The drive was set up on a 45-yard kickoff return by Gladieux from his own 30-yard line to the Clipper 25. Alternating Bardash and Gladieux, Lawver engineered the drive to the Clipper 10, then heaved a perfect spiral to Hyser for the TD. The two-point conversion run by Bardash failed.

The Clippers struck back quickly after Paul Browner, 6-foot, 200-pound tackle, recovered a Louisville fumble on Columbiana's 44. In six plays the Clippers forged ahead, 8-6, with a 13-yard touchdown run by tailback Jeff Lindsay who raced over from the one-yard stripe for the two-point conversion. Lindsay's short scam followed two off-side penalties against the Leopards.

The half ended with the Clippers holding a two-point edge and having possession of the ball on their own 47-yard line.

After Columbiana lost the ball on downs as the second half opened, the Leopards in 13 running plays moved the ball to their second TD with Gladieux ripping off sparkling runs. A key play in the Leopards march was Gladieux' reverse run for 12 yards after a handoff from Bardash. The gain gave the Stark Countians a first down on the foe's 26. Six plays later, Bardash drove off tackle from the two for the score, sending the Leopards permanently ahead, 12-8. Fullback Dave Howell failed to cross the goal line in his attempt to run for two more points.

With 40 seconds left to go in the fray, Louisville ran the final score to 20-8 in a drive featuring a clever fake by Gladieux that caught the Clippers with their championship hopes down.

With a fourth down on the Columbiana 43, an obvious kicking situation was surprisingly converted into a long gainer when Gladieux faked the punt and picked his way down the sidelines to the enemy 20-yard line. Defensive back Jim Ward made the tackle, the sole man preventing Gladieux' total sweep to the goal line.

Two plays later the classy sophomore off 15 yards more to the 4 yard line after Bardash gained one. In three succeeding plays Bardash crunched the rest of the way for the six points, then added two more by crashing into the end zone standing up.

Both teams unleashed an awesome display of sheer ground power and sterling defensive performances. Only five passes were thrown in the entire game, on for Louisville's first score. Four others went incomplete.

For an untarnished season record the Leopards must down East Palestine next Friday night at home and Minerva November 9 at Minerva. Columbiana will meet Lisbon next Friday at the county seat and wind up against East Palestine November 9 at East Palestine.

Louisville has now clouted eight straight foes, three of whom were shut out. If the Leopards win the league championship, it will be the first time in 12 years. The team this fall has racked up 255 points, giving only 36 points to the opposition.

Bardash, leading Stark county in scoring with 116 points or better than a two touchdown average per game, is considered a strong prospect for all-Ohio candidacy.

LSU Faces Florida Tonight

Dayton Chalks Up First Win Of Year, Nips Detroit 13-12

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Florida, a two-time loser and a 13-point underdog, just might be the team to extend the starting string of upsets that has spiced the college football season.

It would seem that Louisiana State, ranked sixth in the nation and unbeaten but tied once, has everything going its way in the game against the Gators tonight.

The Bengals have allowed only 16 points in five games, got past tough Kentucky 7-0 last week and haven't lost on their home field in two years.

But coach Ray Graves' Gators have rebounded smartly after losses to Georgia Tech and Duke. They ripped Texas A&M 42-6 and pounded Vanderbilt 42-7 in their last two games and just might find LSU looking ahead to its big one against Mississippi next week.

What's more, the last time the Bengals lost at home was to Florida, 13-10 two years ago.

It figures to be a test between LSU's stern defense, the running of Florida's Bob Hoover, Lindy Infante, Sam Mack and Larry Dupree and the passing of the Gator's Tom Shannon.

The other ranked teams in action tonight, Texas, Mississippi and Arkansas, all figure to have a much easier time of it.

Top-ranked Texas, unbeaten in five starts and safely past the big test against Arkansas, is a 13½ point pick over winless Rice. Mississippi, 4-0 and ranked seventh, is a four touchdown choice over Vanderbilt, which has a 13-game losing string going. Arkansas, 4-1 and No. 9, is a 20-point pick over Hardin-Simmons (1-5) at Little Rock.

The other ranked teams were in action this afternoon with the key tests pitting eighth-ranked Washington (4-0-1) against a rough Oregon (4-1) squad and fifth-ranked Wisconsin (4-0) against powerful but unpredictable Ohio State (2-2).

The others had Tulsa visiting second-ranked and unbeaten Alabama, third-rated Northwestern hosting Notre Dame, Southern California, No. 4 and 4-0, visiting winless Illinois, and 10th-ranked Michigan State at Indiana.

Dayton edged Detroit 13-12 in the only major game Friday night. It was the first victory of the season for the Flyers, while Detroit has yet to win.

Kentucky Schoolboy Scores 10 Touchdowns

BARDSTOWN, Ky. (AP)—Herbie Phelps of Old Kentucky Home High School became the highest scorer in state prep football history with a 68-point single game performance Friday night.

He streaked for 10 touchdowns and scored eight extra points as his team beat Aquinas Prep of Louisville 75-6. His scoring runs included jaunts of 79, 60 and 55 yards. He carried the ball 20 times and gained 392 yards.

Bears' Conrad Tallies Twice In 2nd Canto

Lisbon Dumped by Leetonia 13-6 In Tri-County Loop Tilt

By LYNN BROWNE

A determined Leetonia Bear aggregation invaded Lisbon Friday night and walked to an easy — if not too impressive — 13-6 victory over their county — seat hosts.

The Bears' win, though rightly deserved, would have carried much more prestige had the Blue Devils played the brand of football a Bud Bucher-coached team is expected to. Lisbon's performance last night was sub-par.

Sparked by the fine running of halfback Paul Conrad, the Bears completely dominated the game and moved the ball almost at will with only fumbles and penalties stalling most of their drives.

LISBON, TOO, WAS plagued by fumbles and had sustained drives halted on several occasions.

Lisbon's poor defensive play was perhaps the deciding factor in the loss. On many plays a Blue Devil defender would hit a Bear ball carrier at or behind the line of scrimmage only to have him slip away and pick up added yardage.

Conrad, as usual, kept the opponents on their toes as he faked and barreled his way for substantial yardage and personally accounted for all of the winners' points.

The hosts got the first break of the clash as junior tackle Lynn Leggett recovered a Leetonia fumble on the first play from scrimmage.

LISBON'S BUD THORNE'S opening kickoff was taken by Leetonia's Al Vignon who handed-off to Conrad and the quick-footed halfback sprinted to the Bears' 40-yard line before being brought down.

On the first play, however, quarterback Frank Guerrier fumbled and Leggett recovered on the visitors' 35-yard stripe.

Seven plays and one first down later the Devils failed to pick up the necessary yardage on a fourth-down-and-18 situation and the Bears regained possession.

The Bears kept the ball for the remainder of the period and were on the Blue Devils' 10 as the canto ended.

ON THE FIRST PLAY of the second canto Conrad opened scoring as he slashed off right tackle and sprinted into the end zone. His placement barely cleared the goal post crossbar and the Bears were ahead 6-0.

Leetonia scored again the next time it got its hands on the ball. Guerrier set up the next TD as he picked off a Lisbon aerial on the Leetonia 40 and returned it to the Lisbon 44.

Conrad chalked up his second tally of the evening on the second play from scrimmage as he took the ball on a reverse and scampered 27 yards into the end zone with 8:48 left in the half. His boot for the point-after-touchdown bounced off the left up-right.

LISBON'S LONE TALLY came on the last play of the first half. With just seconds remaining and Leetonia in possession on its 21-yard line, Dave Rose picked off a flat pass from Guerrier and sprinted into the end zone untouched. His plunge for the points-after-touchdown was short and the host's went into the dressing room on the wrong end of a 13-6 score.

The second half saw both squads drive deep into its opponents territory only to be halted. Lisbon took the opening kickoff and drove to the Leetonia nine only to lose the ball on downs.

Leetonia drove to the hosts' 26 where they fumbled the ball away and later drove to the Lisbon 7-yard mark where Conrad fumbled and recovered but didn't gain the two-yards needed for a first down.

THE LOSS WAS THE Blue Devils second in a row and third in eight outings. Last week they suffered a 54-8 beating by the Louisville Leopards, who dumped Columbiana 20-8 last night.

For Coach Ike Farrah's Bears, the win evened their season mark at 4-4. Lisbon and Leetonia are both 3-3 in Tri-County League action.

Next week Lisbon will be at home to the powerful Clippers of Columbiana while Leetonia will entertain Sebring.

Boston Patriots are right on the course charted for them by Coach Mike Holovak and Gino Cappelletti is moving at a record scoring pace.

Boston began the American Football League weekend Friday night by defeating Oakland 26-16, the Raiders' 13th straight loss.

The Patriots have a 5-2 record at the halfway mark of the season

Nats Win 3rd, Battle Boston Tonight In NBA

By The Associated Press

"The best team I've ever had," Coach Alex Hannum said of his Syracuse Nationals just before they opened the National Basketball Association season.

So far the Nats have made him look good, winning all three starts and leading the Eastern Division. Their latest triumph was a 130-112 victory over the Chicago Zephyrs Friday night.

Tonight Hannum gets the opportunity to find out just how good his team is. They move into Boston to play the mighty Celtics, NBA champs the last five years and also unbeaten this season.

The Celtics came from behind and whipped New York 133-108 for their second victory in as many starts. In other Friday games Cincinnati handed St. Louis its first loss 118-102 and the San Francisco Warriors edged the Detroit Pistons 132-131 in overtime. Syracuse bolted into a 65-50 halftime margin over Chicago and took it from there. They had eight men scoring in double figures, led by veterans Johnny Kerr and Hal Greer with 18 each. Walt Bellamy had 30 for the losers.

In addition to the key Syracuse-Boston clash which has the Eastern lead at stake, other games tonight find San Francisco at Chicago, Detroit at Los Angeles and New York at St. Louis.

For Coach Ike Farrah's Bears, the win evened their season mark at 4-4. Lisbon and Leetonia are both 3-3 in Tri-County League action.

Next week Lisbon will be at home to the powerful Clippers of Columbiana while Leetonia will entertain Sebring.

Boston Patriots are right on the course charted for them by Coach Mike Holovak and Gino Cappelletti is moving at a record scoring pace.

Browns Drill For Steelers In Heavy Snow

CLEVELAND (AP)—If by any chance there is snow Sunday in Pittsburgh, the Cleveland Browns should be used to it.

The Browns found themselves floundering in heavy snow as they worked out Friday at League Park for the Steeler game.

One section of the field was partially cleared, but several additional inches of snow fell as the players got in some running. The word from Pittsburgh, was that Sunday will be a nice day, with no snow expected though.

Except for Don Fleming's ankle sprain, the Browns are in pretty good shape physically. Quarterback Jim Ninowski, who was hampered by a knee injury, is running better than in several weeks.

And there has been some improvement in the sprained wrist which has been bothering fullback Jim Brown.

A word from THERON at the Country Store

We are getting our Country Store in really nice shape now. We hired a new man to keep our store in order and to merchandise, also one of our boys came back from the army and he is helping us get things in better shape, in other words our grocery department is now being well taken care of, just like the meat and produce departments have been. All the departments are competing with each other for percentages of store sales, result a much better store for you.

Change In Blue Law Creates Controversy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A rough-and-tumble campaign which has generated a singularly small amount of public reaction is being brought right down to the election wire over a constitutional proposal to define Sunday necessities.

The sponsors of the amendment to Ohio's so-called blue laws which date back to the early days of statehood. A simple majority is needed for approval.

The laws of Ohio for 131 years have prohibited work on Sunday except for necessary or charitable purposes. The difficulty has been that courts have varied in their definition of necessary work.

The financing for the mammoth task of getting the issue on the ballot apparently has been borne almost entirely by the Lawson Milk Co.

Retail merchants, some church groups and organized labor have formed an opposition coalition with varying appeals to varied groups, but the common watchword appears to be the slogan "Keep Sunday Sunday."

The amendment would write into the state constitution a prohibition against any state law or local ordinance which would bar the sale, processing or rendition of these services or commodities: "Gas, electricity, telephone, telegraph, public means of transportation or other public utility service or product; newspapers, other news publications, radio, television or other public communication service; household goods; motor fuels and lubricant for automotive vehicles; prescription and proprietary drugs and household medical supplies; products used for personal hygiene and sanitation; milk, milk products, and food item or food product for human or animal consumption."

Most observers are inclined to discount behind-the-scenes predictions that the blue-law amendment will produce as heavy and as emotional a vote as the ill-starred so-called right-to-work amendment in 1958. But it is obvious the opponents are working hard to get out the vote.

Opponents have an organization called Voters Action Association. The group asserts approval of the amendment would open the door for Sunday operation of a number of retail establishments which courts have said, in the past, must be closed on the sabbath.

The opposite view of the sponsors is that goods and services now generally regarded as necessities could be banned by court order. They insist the amendment only would provide the guidelines for future laws.

Aerial Show Set at Salem Air Park

Old-time and experimental airplanes, parachute jumping, aerobatic exhibitions and helicopters will be features of the second annual free air show Sunday at Salem Air Park two miles north of Salem on Route 45.

The show is sponsored by Salem Air Park, Inc., and Salem Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol. The "Tin Goose," a 1928 trimotor plane from a Port Clinton Airline, will be at the airport to carry visitors on sightseeing trips over Salem and vicinity. The 15-passenger plane's usual role is hauling passengers, mail, freight and even children to school around Port Clinton.

The unusual Ford-built plane has amazing short field characteristics. It can take off with heavy loads from abbreviated fields. Planes of this type have never crashed due to structural failure.

R. D. Linn, commander of the Salem Squadron Civil Air Patrol, says the 83rd Army Aviation company will also be represented.

Air show events will begin at 11 a.m. and proceed until 5 p.m. Parachutists will be jumping from high altitudes throughout the afternoon because pleasant weather is forecast.

Lunch will be available after noon.

Career Day Planned At Columbiana High

Foods from foreign countries were served at luncheon, with each church furnishing dishes native to the country it represented.

REAL ESTATE TAX Reappraisal Facts COLUMBIANA COUNTY

In 1958 the Democrats said:

- "We will save thousands of dollars on Real Estate Reappraisals. We feel that $180,000.00 is too much money to spend on this. Our candidate when elected will do his own reappraisals." (East Liverpool Review, Oct. 25, Nov. 1, 1958).
- "We pledge, with the election of . . . (a Democrat) . . . as auditor, the appraisal will be handled by the auditor's office and local people will be hired . . ." (East Liverpool Review, Oct. 22, 27, 29, 1958).

THE FACTS:

The present Democrat County Auditor — as of September 15, 1962, has already spent $229,382.76 on your tax reappraisal, after 3½ years in office, and HAS NOT completed it!

In every previous reappraisal in Columbiana County, under Republicans, local personnel were hired to do 90% or more of the work.

Why Has It Taken More Than 3½ Years

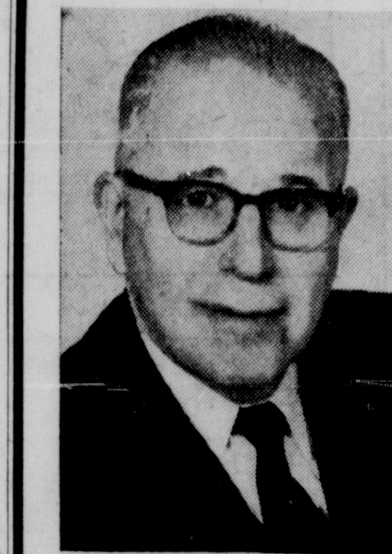

HOW MUCH LONGER WILL IT TAKE?

WHY HASN'T THE INCUMBENT DEMOCRAT AUDITOR SAVED MONEY ON THE RE-APPRAISAL AS PROMISED?

HOW MUCH MORE WILL IT COST?

ARE THE RESULTS OF THE REAPPRAISAL BEING WITHHELD UNTIL AFTER THE ELECTION FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES BY THE DEMOCRATS BECAUSE OF A REAL ESTATE TAX INCREASE?
